Conclusions:

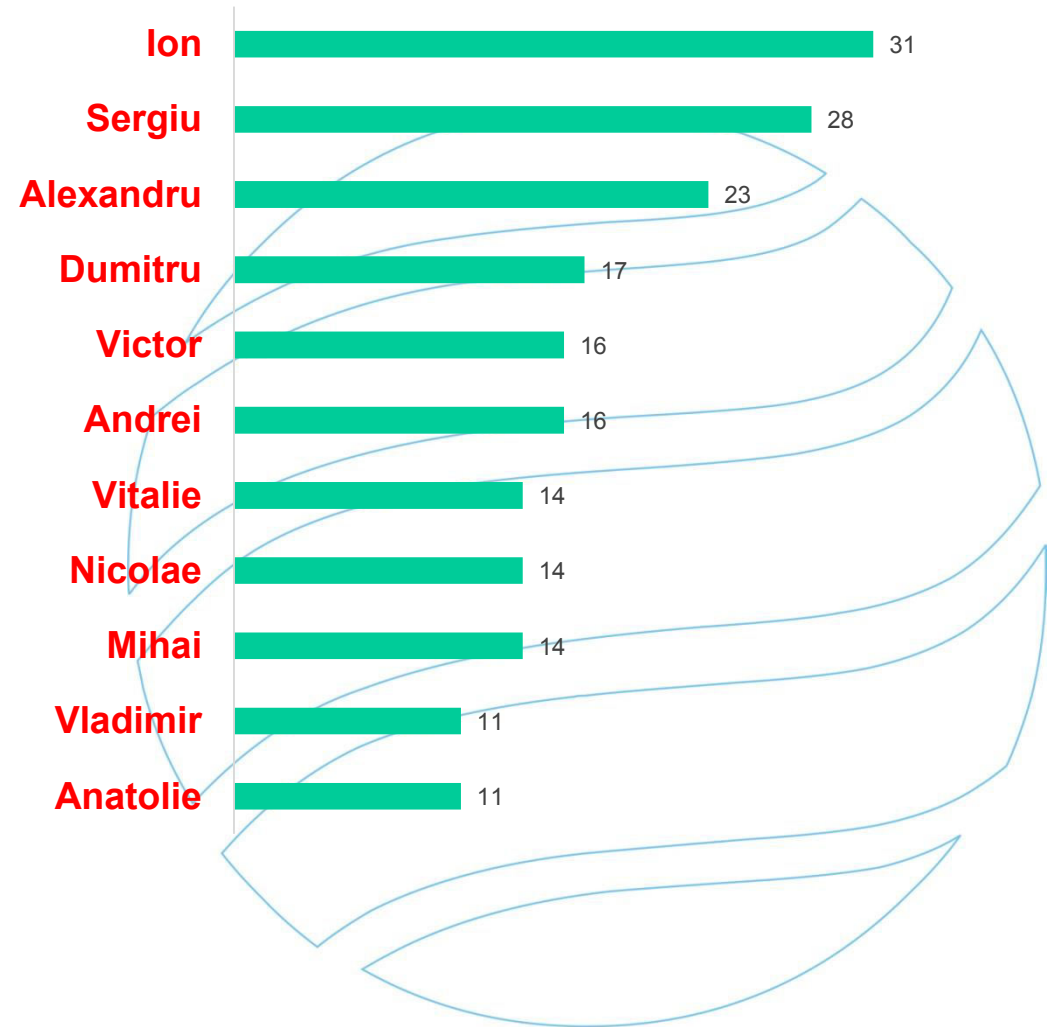

- Doctoral studies remain unattractive;
- The most popular are the same fields as the other two cycles of higher education and where it is easier to elaborate and sustain PhD thesis
- Enrolled people have a relatively high age;
- The majority of PhD students have to be a part time study person in order to be able to work in parallel to have a source of income;
- Overall, the profile of the enrolled PhD student demonstrates the deep crisis that includes PhD as an essential element of education and research in Moldova.
